

Community Characteristic Scores

Snapshot results for Thomas County, Georgia

50.6

DISC Score
(Scale: 0 - 100)

Nation: 55.9, State: 53.7

DISC Score

The Decision Integration for Strong Communities (DISC) index is a summary measure that provides a profile about select community characteristics. The index is based on indicators and metrics derived from existing cultural, economic, health, and other related data from years 2015-2019. The DISC profile index provides a snapshot about quality of life characteristics common across all communities and is sensitive to changes in the economic, social and ecological environments.

Connection to Nature: 64.7

Nation: 55.4, State: 61.1

Cultural Fulfillment: 38.0

Nation: 46.0, State: 41.3

Education: 29.5

Nation: 52.0, State: 46.1

Health: 70.4

Nation: 70.9, State: 70.6

Leisure Time: 55.3

Nation: 49.4, State: 52.0

Living Standards: 42.9

Nation: 51.3, State: 47.1

Safety & Security: 65.7

Nation: 71.1, State: 69.4

Social Cohesion: 33.6

Nation: 48.9, State: 43.9

Resilience: 55.1

Nation: 58.3, State: 51.7

Services Scores

Social

Ecosystem

Economic

41.5

49.4

38.0

